DERBY ENTRIES FOR 1902.

Secretary James Howard, of the Washington Park Club, herewith submits a list of the nominations for the American Derby of 1902. Every loyal Chicagoan will take a lively interest in this galaxy of exceptionally high class three-year-olds, which is one of the best that has ever been named for the great classic. The list totals ninety-nine, about the same as last year, but is of a higher order. The east nominates for Derby honors Endurance by Right, Goldseeker, Heno, Pentecost, Keynote, Old England, Sombrero and many others, while the far west names Cruzados, San Nicholas, Corrigan and several others. Of the middle west the names of Abe Frank, Ed Austin, Allan-a-Dale, McChesney, Runnels and a number of others stand out in the light. The other stakes have filled nicely and the nominations are in quality and quantity probably a shade better than last year.

The American Derby.—A sweepstakes for three-year-olds; $25 to accompany the nomination, $225 additional to start; $20,000 added, of which $3,000 to the second and $2,000 to the third horse. A winner of a three-year-old stakes of the value of $3,000 to carry 3 lbs.; of two such stakes, or one of $5,000, 5 lbs.; of three or more three-year-old stakes of the value of $3,000 each, 7 lbs. extra. RAIN STORM STOPS RACES.

CHARLESTON, S. C., January 21.—Today's races were declared off on account of the heavy rain storm which nearly gutted the grand stand, betting ring and other buildings and made the track a veritable quagmire and unfit for racing purposes.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Danny Maher, when asked several days ago at Hartford, Conn., about his riding in England this year, confirmed the report that he would ride for King Edward. "I have been enabled to arrange matters so that I shall be able to accept the offer," he said, "though it looked very doubtful for a time. I suppose that Lorillard's death released me from my contract with him, but Blackwell, his trainer, wanted me to fulfil the contract, which has yet two years to run, and notified me I would have to."

"After a consultation between my father and my lawyer, however, an agreement was reached by which I can ride for both, taking care of King Edward's big events. I am feeling in tip-top shape and look forward to earning over $50,000 this coming season."

Lee Jackson, the clever lightweight jockey who is riding so well at Oakland this winter, will in all probability be seen wearing the colors of Mr. Ziegler. Mr. G. B. Morris has been trying to secure Jackson, and Mr. Hughes wired the boy that he should sign no contract with any one until he returns home and sees Mr. Ziegler. Jackson replied he would comply with the request. Mr. Ziegler has quite a big string of two-year-olds and will have a large stable this coming season, and a boy of Jackson's ability will be quite an addition to his outfit.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Mr. J. E. Cushing writes to Martin Nathanson, secretary of the Harlem Jockey Club, under date of January 14, 1902, that Jacob Burg, an exercising boy, has left his stable and care without cause and is now around the Roby or Sheffield race track. Mr. Cushing warns trainers and owners not to hire him nor harbor him, as he has the boy under contract.

The first of the get of Ben Holladay, the great distance horse and winner of cup races, was dropped at the Elmendorf Stud of J. B. Haggin, near Lexington, Ky., January 16. It is a bay filly out of the $4,000 Berridale, by Donovan. The first foal of the year by Order is a bay colt out of Thorn Blossom dropped at Elmendorf.

Assistant Secretary John B. Dillon, of the Latonia Jockey Club, has gone on a visit to the racing meetings, winter training grounds and breeding establishments in the south and west in quest of entries to the stake events and good horses for the purses to be decided at the spring meeting at Latonia. The stake entries close February 1.

The present winter has been eventful at Montgomery Park for the number of horses that have been gelded. Hildreth has gelded Gonfalon. Golden Age and Wild Pirate, Hans Wagner, Alibert and many others have been transformed into geldings. Alfonso, which was injured in a race at New Orleans, Saturday, January 18, has been destroyed. He broke one of his legs. The animal was owned by Thomas Stevens who valued him at $5,000.

W. F. V. If you bet at a poolroom or a race track where second booking is announced, your money would be refunded, otherwise your bet on Van Hoorebeke is lost.

OUR HORSES IN ENGLAND.

The Americans this year are very formidable in stake nominations in England, the engagements of Messrs. Keene, Whitney and Croker being somewhat of a stupendous nature. The Daily America of January 20, has this to say about the big entry list:

"Some of Mr. Croker's horses have been entered in nearly every stake that closed on nomination day. The Messrs. Keenes' entries, when compared with those of English turfmen, seem to completely overshadow them both in numbers and quality. Indeed, the stable now in England which will represent the Keenes is something that should give just cause for Americans to feel proud over. Nearly all are American bred. Disguise II., Noonday, Olympian and Cap and Bells are all the produce of Domino. Conroy is in one or two soft spots. Indeed, from the looks of the three 'ten thousand pounders' that are to be run this year, there do not now seem any horses able to defeat the Keene candidates, and it is no vain prediction to make that with ordinary luck the Messrs. Keene will be very near the top of the best of winning owners at the close of 1902."

Mr. W. K. Vanderbilt is also a nominator, though only on a modest scale.

Mr. Whitney is a heavy nominator, and no doubt sent further nominations from this side through Mr. Vosburgh."

The following is a list of American entries in the various big English fixtures:

The Lincolnshire Handicap, run Tuesday, March 18, at the Lincoln Spring Meeting, one mile. W. K. Vanderbilt's br. g, Ontario II., 6; J. R. Keene's Disguise II., 5; F. Keene's Olympian, 4, Noonday II., 4. Holstein and Water Shed, American horses, were entered by their English owners.

The Grand National Steeplechase, run Friday, March 28, over the Grand National Course, about four miles and 856 yards. F. Keene's Gossip, aged, Easter Gift, aged.

New Orleans 2nd Race 15 to 50 to 1 Extra Special. Plunge the Limit.

Of all the good things that we have had and given to the public, this one is better than any—we don't BAR such good ones as J. BOGGS, 30-1; SWAMPLANDS, 60-1, won; VERIFY, 30-1, won; ORLA, 20-1, won, and OVER FIFTY OTHER LONG SHOTS which lack of space prevents us from publishing. We expect to get as good as 15 to 1 on this good thing in the second race and the chances are that the bookies will lay 50 to 1 in the opening betting.

THURSDAY 10 TO 1 OR BETTER SIXTH RACE NEW ORLEANS.

This good thing has been in special training for six weeks to win this race and mud or a fast track will win this race in a canter. We are the greatest turf bureau in existence. We can beat any one on racing information, barring none. There is not one that can show results like we can for any continued length of time and we challenge anyone to take us up on this. ABOVE ALL, PLAY OUR SPECIALS. We only give a few a day. They are the greatest boon for any man that wants to play a few races only. YOU can positively win on them. Winner—Ch. f. by The Friar—Merry One.
Went to post at 2:37. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Merry Sister came away with a rush in the last sixteenth. Frances Porter was prominent in all the breakaways. She ran an improved race. So did Julia Lislem. The latter got third place in the last stride. Lady Winkle came very wide entering the homestretch, but was closing fast when straightened. This looks like a good filly and one that should improve. Brulo was very green at the post and threw her head up when the barrier was released.
Overweights—Frances Porter, 11 pounds.
